NetEDI rewarded for pushing the boundaries of innovation/ demonstrating expertise in translating the requirements of Sage customers into value added solutions/ offering excellence in software, service, marketing and business support throughout 2011

7th December 2011: NetEDI Ltd based near Preston, Lancashire was today awarded the Sage Innovation Award of the Year at the company's annual Developer of the year ceremony. Sage's Innovation Award recognises and rewards its leading developers who provide innovated products and services to complement a range of Sage products.

On presenting the award to NetEDI, Darren Liddell, Manager of the Sage Developers Programme states, "We are delighted to present this award to NetEDI and my congratulations go to all involved. They have shown excellent growth by meeting their customer needs and delivering innovative solutions efficiently and effectively. Our developers are immensely important to us and companies such as NetEDI are leading the way in their field. We look forward to working together with them in the future for mutual benefit and growth."

NetEDI's Business Development Director, Marc Nelson, says, "We are delighted to win this award. Not only is it recognition of all the hard work the team has put in, but it is great to receive this type of endorsement from Sage. We look forward to building upon this success in the future."

Nelson continued, "We are actively looking for Business Partners to resell the NetIX EDI service and being recognised with this award by Sage will further strengthen the proposition that NetEDI has to offer."
